

Woodside Energy Indigenous Business Traineeship

Kick-start your career and build your future with Woodside Energy - Australia's leading energy company.

Ready to take the first step toward a meaningful career?

The Indigenous Business Traineeship with Woodside Energy is more than just a job - it's a chance to grow your confidence, build real skills, and discover what you're capable of. You'll join a supportive team, work alongside experienced professionals, and gain a nationally recognised qualification that opens doors for your future.

Whether you're just finishing school or looking for a fresh start, this traineeship offers a welcoming environment where your culture, identity and aspirations are respected and celebrated. If you're motivated, curious, and ready to learn - we want to hear from you.

Nationally recognised qualifications

Certificate III in Business — with the opportunity to progress to Certificate IV based on your performance.

Earn while you learn

Get paid to train full-time — with access to annual leave, sick leave and all the benefits of being a Programmed employee.

Launch your career

Pathway to a long-term career in business, administration, or other corporate roles - with support to grow into your next opportunity.

Support every step of the way

You'll be supported by people who understand your journey — from Indigenous mentors to experienced Coordinators and Woodside team members who are committed to your success.

Welcoming and professional workplace

You'll learn and grow in a safe, supportive, and professional workplace with up-to-date systems and technology.

Work somewhere you belong

Be part of a team that respects your identity, culture, and community — with Indigenous mentors, support networks, and a workplace that values you.
